

PATHWAYS FLEXIBILITIES

Resource for Hiring Managers and Supervisors – Internship Program Edition

There are a number of Government-wide flexibilities within the existing Pathways regulations, outlined below, that can help you and your colleagues more effectively use the Pathways Programs (Programs), particularly the Internship Program. We encourage you to review your Pathways Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) and agency-specific policies before using any of these strategies. Please consult your Pathways Programs Officer (PPO) or a human resources (HR) professional for further guidance.

To learn more about the Internship Program, please visit the Program Fact Sheet on the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) website.

Post an advertisement rather than a JOA	Experience greater flexibility in advertising and receiving applications through means other than, or in addition to, your Talent Acquisition System (TAS) (e.g., USA Staffing) Receive and/or review applications at on-site recruiting events Make the rating and ranking process more manageable for HR professionals Make the review of the list of eligibles more manageable for hiring managers Allow applicants to be notified of their status more quickly	Agencies may advertise an Internship position using a JOA or by posting an advertisement on USAJOBS. Posting an advertisement for an Internship position is different from posting a JOA in that the “Apply Online” button is not a part of its functionality. This means that applicants cannot submit their applications directly through USAJOBS. Therefore, agencies must include instructions on where to find information to apply for the position within the body of the advertisement.	5 CFR 362.104(c)  5 CFR 362.105(b)  5 CFR 362.203 Final Rule (Responses to Overarching Comments – #6) OPM Pathways FAQs (#12) OPM Pathways Transition and Implementation Guidance (Appendix E)
Recruit students up to nine months before they complete their academic requirements	Enhance your ability to compete with private sector and other employers for talented students and recent graduates Experience greater flexibility in syncing your recruitment timelines with academic calendars Provide applicants with a greater number of employment opportunities in Government	Agencies inform applicants in the JOA of how soon they may apply for the position prior to completing their academic requirements. The JOA should state that all qualification requirements must be met by applicants before they may enter on duty. Agencies using their own qualification standards for Pathways Interns may adopt similar provisions in order to use this flexibility.	OPM Pathways FAQs (#21) OPM Qualification Standards (General Policies, Application of Qualification Standards, 4.d.
